msapimastercodes is a very useful class for working with files. In this post, we will look at how to use it to search for text in a file, replace and delete a piece of text in a file. To use this class, you must install the msapimastercodes package. Code example In this example, we will display the string "hello world" as a table, i.e. as rows, not columns. The msapimastercodes class can only display strings, so you must specify the value "str" in the class and assign a string to the variable;
